Employee Cell Phone Policy

Version 1.0

Employee Cell Phone Policy

Policy brief & purpose

AfroLeadership employee cell phone policy outlines our guidelines for using cell phones at work.

We recognize that cell phones (and smartphones especially) have become an integral part of everyday life. They may be a great asset if used correctly (for productivity apps, calendars, business calls etc.)

But, cell phones may also cause problems when used imprudently or excessively.

Scope

This policy applies to all our employees.

Policy elements

Despite their benefits, personal cell phones may cause problems in the workplace. Employees who use their cell phones excessively may:

- Get distracted from their work.
- Disturb colleagues by speaking on their phones.
- Cause security issues from inappropriate use of AfroLeadership-issued equipment or misuse of AfroLeadership's internet connection.
- Cause accidents when they illegally use their phones inside AfroLeadership vehicles or near areas where using phones is prohibited.

AfroLeadership expects employees to use their cellphones prudently during working hours.

We advise our employees to:

- Use AfroLeadership-issued phones for business purposes only and preserve them in perfect condition.
- Surf the internet, text and talk on the phone only for a few minutes per day.
- Turn off or silence their phones when asked.

We won't allow employees to:

- Play games on the cell phone during working hours.
- Use their phones for any reason while driving an AfroLeadership vehicle.
- Use their cell phone's camera or microphone to record confidential information.
- Use their phones in areas where cell use is explicitly prohibited (e.g. laboratories.)
- Speak on their phones within earshot of colleagues' working space during working hours.

- Download or upload inappropriate, illegal or obscene material on AfroLeadership cell phone using a corporate internet connection.

How to properly use cell phones in the workplace

Employees can benefit from using cell phones. They're allowed to use their phones:

- To make business calls.
- To use productivity apps.
- To check important messages.
- To make brief personal calls away from the working space of colleagues.

Employees can use their phones during breaks or at lunch hour and while on a stationary vehicle.

Disciplinary Consequences

AfroLeadership retains the right to monitor employees for excessive or inappropriate use of their cell phones. If an employee's phone usage causes a decline in productivity or interferes with our operations, we'll ban that employee from using their cell phones.

Employees may face severe disciplinary action up to and including termination, in cases when they:

- Cause a security breach.
- Violate our confidentiality policy.
- Cause an accident by recklessly using their phones.
