

Equal Opportunity Employer Policy

Version 1.0

Equal Opportunity Employer Policy (EEO Policy)

EEO Policy brief & purpose

AfroLeadership equal opportunity employer policy reflects our commitment to ensure equality and promote diversity in the workplace.

This equal employment opportunity policy is the pillar of a healthy and productive workplace at AfroLeadership. Everyone should feel supported and valued to work productively so we are invested in treating everyone with respect and consideration.

Scope

AfroLeadership equal opportunity employer policy applies to all employees, job candidates, contractors, stakeholders, partners and visitors.

Equal opportunity is for everyone, but it mainly concerns members of underrepresented groups – they're the ones who are traditionally disadvantaged in the workplace. We don't guarantee employment or promotions for people in those groups, but we will treat them fairly and avoid discriminating against them either via conscious or unconscious biases.

Policy elements

For AfroLeadership, being an equal opportunity employer means that we provide the same opportunities for hiring, advancement and benefits to everyone without discriminating due to protected characteristics like:

- Age
- Sex / Gender
- Ethnicity/ Nationality
- Religion
- Disability
- Medical history

What is an EEO policy?

We built our equal employment opportunity policy around preventive and affirmative actions to ensure fairness in all aspects of employment. These aspects include:

- Hiring
- Training
- Evaluating performance

- Administering compensation and benefits
- Terminating employees

AfroLeadership wants to make sure that equal opportunity applies to other instances. For example, we don't retaliate against employees and we are committed to prevent and resolve any kind of harassment against our employees, including sexual harassment.

AfroLeadership HR department is responsible for assessing our organization's processes and ensuring they are bias-free. Whenever we find biases interfering, we will act immediately to refine our processes, train our people to combat their biases and protect possible victims of discrimination. We will give everyone the chance to work in an environment where their rights are respected.

Actions

To promote equal opportunity, AfroLeadership first ensures we follow all the EEO regulations and laws that apply to each part of our organization in the jurisdictions where we work.

We will also take additional actions to promote fairness and diversity as part of our equal employment opportunity policy. We will:

- Adapt our offices and facilities to accommodate people with disabilities.
- Provide parental leave and flexible work arrangement policies.
- Hire, train and evaluate employees through job-related criteria.
- Allow employees to take religious or national holidays that aren't included in AfroLeadership's official schedule.
- Train employees on communication and diversity.
- Implement open door practices so employees can report discrimination more easily.

Grievance Procedure

All supervisors and managers at AfroLeadership are responsible to use equal opportunity practices and make decisions based on objective, non-discriminatory criteria. Everyone should comply with our policy at all times.

If you see or suspect that our EEO policies are being violated, feel free to inform HR or the President of AfroLeadership immediately. If you suspect that someone is behaving in a wrong way but doesn't realize it, you could also talk to them directly.

Disciplinary Consequences

When someone discriminates, they will be subject to disciplinary action depending on the severity of their actions. For example, unintentionally offending a coworker might warrant a reprimand, but harassing someone systematically might result in demotion or termination.
